LAWS OF NEW YORK, 2009

CHAPTER 377

AN ACT to amend chapter 392 of the laws of 2003 relating to creating the Mamakating library district in the town of Mamakating, New York, in relation to changing the structure of the board of such library district

      Became a law August 26, 2009, with the approval of the Governor.
         Passed by a majority vote, three-fifths being present.

   The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

   Section 1. The opening paragraph of section 3 of chapter 392 of the laws of 2003, relating to creating the Mamakating library district in the town of Mamakating, New York, is amended to read as follows: The Mamakating library district shall be managed, operated, and controlled by a board of trustees consisting of no less than five members nor more than fifteen members. The trustees shall take office on the first day of the month following their election and shall, at the first regular meeting of the board, determine when terms of office of each member shall expire as follows: the two trustees receiving the first and second highest number of votes shall serve for four years, the two trustees receiving the third and fourth highest number of votes shall serve for three years, and the trustee receiving the fifth highest number of votes shall serve for two years. The ten additional trustee positions are within the range of five-fifteen trustees allowed by subdivision one of section two hundred sixty of the education law and may be filled as determined by the library board at subsequent elections.
   § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

The Legislature of the STATE OF NEW YORK ss:
   Pursuant to the authority vested in us by section 70-b of the Public Officers Law, we hereby jointly certify that this slip copy of this session law was printed under our direction and, in accordance with such section, is entitled to be read into evidence.
